

Saturday
25th June

ALE in the VALE

Bus Arrives	Pub Description	Leave Pub	Bus departs
	Depart Llantwit Major, Outside Railway Station BUS 303		11.50
	Depart Bridgend Stand 11, Outside Bus Station BUS 303		Noon
12.10 Bus stops 200m before pub.	WATERMILL, Ogmere. A large pub on the main road with beautiful scenery around, and extensive outdoor seating for sunny days. BEERS: Brains	13.00 Walk 10mins
12.10	PELICAN In her PIETY, Ogmere. (Due to re-open)	13.00	13.10
13.18	THREE GOLDEN CUPS, Southerndown. One of the few pubs on the Glamorgan Heritage Coast from which you can actually see the sea. The restaurant / lounge has a stone and wooden decor and is named after the Maria Jose, a ship wrecked nearby in 1914. BEERS: Gower, Glamorgan, Tomos and Lilford	14.13	14.18
14.21	FOX, St Brides Major. A village local in a fourteenth century building which has been a pub for over 200 years. BEERS: Varies	15.17	15.22
14.22	FARMERS ARMS, St Brides Major. Also known locally as "The Pub on the Pond", this spacious, attractive roadside inn is situated opposite the village BEERS: Glamorgan, Sharps	15.17	15.22
15.26	STAR, Wick. Originally three farm cottages, the interior comprises a traditional bar with pew seating and a lounge/diner with flagstone flooring. BEERS: Wye Valley, Glamorgan	16.21	16.26
15.26	LAMB & FLAG, Wick. An attractive building in this small village houses a traditional bar & comfortable lounge/dining room. Lots of stone, tile and wood show how little this pub has altered over the years. BEERS: Wye Valley, Glamorgan	16.21	16.26
16.33	PLOUGH & HARROW, Monknash. Renowned, welcoming 14th-century pub, originally a monastic farmhouse for Neath Abbey, with many original features remaining. BEERS: Draught Bass, Glamorgan	17.28	17.33
17.36	HORSHESHOE INN, Marcross. The Shoes is a beautiful 19th century pub in the hamlet of Marcross. When sunny the beer garden is delightful and in winter the compact interior is cosy. BEERS: Wye Valley, Gower, Tomos and Lilford	18.31	18.36
18.40	WHITE HART Entertainment in the Garden.
18.40	OLD SWAN
18.40	TUDOR TAVERN
18.40	WHITE LION
Bus 303 is operated by New Adventure Travel. A £6.60 day ticket is available from their Bus App. The bus departs from Bay 11 at Bridgend bus station. Bay 11 is just outside the end of the bus station.

